

Log Boom Park Restoration Project

Project Status

Completed 2010-2011

Log Boom Park houses the Tributary 0056 outfall at Lake Washington. The outfall was failing and eroding the stream bank. Permanent erosion control measures were installed as well and stream bank restoration.